Top 10 Ways to Confuse Your Professors

What Should My Major Be?

To help you decide, here is a list of the ways professors in different departments grade their final exams

<http://www.saviodsilva.org/lists/f24.htm>

Dept Of Physical

Education:

Everybody gets an A.

Dept Of Statistics:

All grades are plotted along the normal bell curve.

Dept Of Logic:

If and only if the student is present for the final and the student has accumulated a passing grade then the student will receive an A else the student will not receive an A.

Dept Of Philosophy:

What is a grade?

Dept Of Religion:

Grade is determined by God.

Law School:

Students are asked to defend their position of why they should receive an A.

Music Department:

Each student must figure out his grade by listening to the instructor play the corresponding note (+ and - would be sharp and flat respectively).

Dept Of Computer Science:

Random number generator determines grade.

Dept Of Mathematics:

Grades are variable.

Dept Of History:

All students get the same grade they got last year.

Dept Of Psychology:

Students are asked to blot ink in their exam books, close them and turn them in. The professor opens the books and assigns the first grade that comes to mind.

Brush your teeth during class. While doing so, raise your hand as if you have a question, and mumble your question incoherently while brushing, spewing toothpaste all over the place. If your professor objects to your actions, go on a tirade about proper oral hygiene.

Sit way at the back of the room, up against the wall, to get as far away from your professor as possible. While he/she is lecturing, shout out things like, "What!?" and "Speak up! You're mumbling!" If your professor advises you to sit closer to the front, tell him/her you can't because you're scouting the room for "assassins."

Dispute everything your professor says, no matter how simple. Try to get him/her to "prove" everything to you. Rant and rave about what a big liar your professor is. Yell at students who are taking notes, saying, "Stop writing down all these lies!"

Hide somewhere inside the classroom. Wait for your professor to take attendance. Don't come out when he/she calls your name. Halfway through class, jump out and yell, "Just kidding! I'm here! Fooled you again!" Sit down and be quiet for the rest of class.

Come to class with a jar full of angry hornets. Five minutes into class, release the hornets, scream, and run away.

Bring a vacuum to class. Halfway through class, stand up and start using it. If your professor objects, explain that you "can't stand sitting in this pig sty any longer." Keep vacuuming, grumbling angrily.

Every time your professor stutters, do a shot. If he/she objects, explain that drinking games make the class more interesting.

When your professor gives you a syllabus, take it home, correct it, give it a grade, and return it to the professor. Demand extra credit.

Wait for your professor to mention a date, and then yell out, "Bingo!" Apologize, and explain that you got confused

When you have to write a paper, get it done early and mail it to your professor's house. From then on, don't hand anything in, and blame it on the sluggishness of the postal service.

Share Your Exam Anxiety With Your Professors!

Fifteen minutes into the exam, stand up, rip all the papers into very small pieces, throw them into the air and yell out "Merry Christmas!" If you're really daring, ask for another copy of the exam. Say you lost the first one. Repeat this process every fifteen minutes.

Do the exam with crayons, paint, or fluorescent markers.

Talk the entire way through the exam. Read questions aloud, debate your answers with yourself aloud. If asked to stop, yell out, "Yea right, like I'm SOOO sure you can hear me thinking!" then start talking about what a jerk the instructor is.

As soon as the instructor hands you the exam, eat it.

Every now and then, clap twice rapidly. If the instructor asks why, tell him in a very derogatory tone, "The light bulb above my head when I get an idea is hooked up to a clapper.

Come to the exam wearing a black cloak. After about 30 minutes, put on a white mask and start yelling, "I'm here, the phantom of the opera" until they drag you away.

Bring cheat sheets from ANOTHER CLASS (make sure this is obvious ... like history notes for a calculus exam otherwise you're not just failing, you're getting kicked out, too) and staple them to the exam with the comment: "please use the attached notes for the references as you see fit."

Try to get people in the room to do the wave.

From the moment the exam begins, hum the theme to Jeopardy. Ignore the instructor's requests for you to stop.

Every five minutes, stand up, collect all your things, move to another seat and continue with the exam.

Early bird gets the worm, but the second mouse gets the cheese.

Beauty is in the eye of the beer holder

24 hours in a day, 24 beers in a case;
Coincidence?

Everyone has a photographic memory.
Some don't have film

Wear short sleeves! Support your right to bare arms!

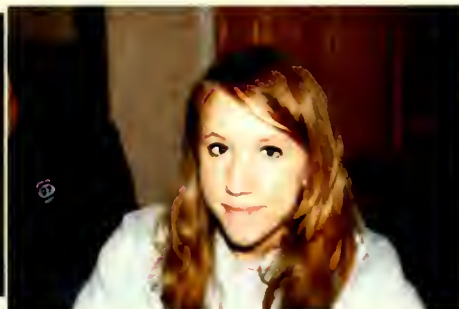

For Sale: Parachute. Only used once, never opened, small stain.

If you choke a smurf, what color does it turn?

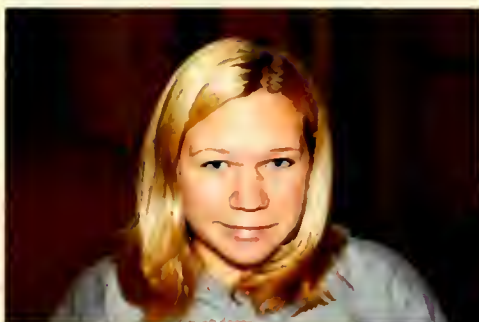

There is a very fine line between "hobby" and "mental illness."

STRESS = INSANITY

Top Ways of Coping With Stress

- 1) Jam miniature marshmallows up your nose and sneeze them out. See how many you can do at a time.
- 2) When someone says "have a nice day", tell them you have other plans.
- 3) Put your toddler's clothes on backwards and send him to pre-school as if nothing is wrong.
- 4) Fill out your tax form using Roman Numerals.
- 5) Leaf through "National Geographic" and draw underwear on the natives.
- 6) Tattoo "Out to Lunch" on your forehead.
- 7) Pay your electric bill in pennies.
- 8) Find out what a frog in a blender really looks like.
- 9) Tell you boss to "blow it out your mule" and let him figure it out.
- 10) Sit naked on a shelled hard-boiled egg.
- 11) Braid the hairs in each nostril.
- 12) Write a short story using alphabet soup.
- 13) Replace the filling of a Twinkie with ketchup and put it back in the wrapper.
- 14) Bill your doctor for time spent in his waiting room.
- 15) Do your assignments in binary code. <http://www.savioudsilva.net/lists/128.htm>

"STRESS"
THE CONFUSION CREATED WHEN ONE'S MIND OVERRIDES THE BODY'S BASIC DESIRE TO CHOKE
THE LYING DAYLIGHTS OUT OF
SOMEBODY WHO DESPERATELY NEEDS IT.

You write your mother in Germany every week, even though she sends you mail from Iowa asking why you never write.

You're always having to apologize to your next door neighbor for setting fire to his lawn decorations.

Nobody listens to you anymore because they can't understand you through that scuba mask.

You tend to agree with everything your mother's dead uncle tells you.

Every time you see the commercial for Hair Club for Men, you think to yourself, "I think I'll kill the Pope today."

You argue with yourself about which is better – to be eaten by a koala or to be loved by an infectious disease.

You like to sit in cornfields for prolonged periods of time and pretend that you're a stalk.

People offer you help, but unfortunately you interpret this as a violation of your rights as a boysenberry.

HOPE YOU LIKE YOUR ROOMMATE ...

Thirsty

When someone has a glass of milk at the table and then leaves, place an egg in the glass of milk. Wait for them to drink it and hit something hard and watch what happens.

Computers

if you can obtain a program which will do "Screenshots" take a screenshot of the computers desktop, then remove all the desktop icons, move the recycle bin off the screen (it can't be deleted), and then set the background as the screenshot. They will forever click on the icons, but to no avail.

Pennies

In most dorms, there is enough space between the door and doorjamb and the wall to fit about four coins. Once these are in place, the occupants of the room will not be able to use the door to exit...

Fun with Shaving Cream

Take an "accordion" folder, and fill it with shaving cream. Put the open end under someone's door, and jump. A nice surprise is deposited in the person's room.

Get a packet of instant milk and put it in someone's bed on a particularly hot night. In their sleep, they will sweat, and in the morning the milk will have mutated into SOUR STINKY MILK! They will stink for a week.

A Letter from the Editors...

On behalf of the Ontaroga, we the Editors would like to express our gratitude to all of the people, clubs, and teams that have contributed to and supported the 2004-2005 yearbook. Without the hard work and everlasting dedication of each staff member, this edition would have been impossible. We have designed, constructed, and argued everyday to produce this yearbook. We have bettered ourselves through continuous teamwork, and we have developed our understanding of the difficulties involved in producing such an extravagant publication.

We would like to thank Thomas Straughn for all of his guidance, patience, and excellent computer skills. Thank you so much for putting our needs for the yearbook above your own personal agenda.

P.S. All the other advisors at Hilton Head thought you were wonderful too!

Lees-McRae College

"Banner's Elk," as the village was once called, is said to have been settled around 1850. By the end of the century, the Presbyterian Church was becoming established in the area and in the summer of 1895 Concord Presbytery sent a young student from Union Theological Seminary in Virginia to organize a church at Banner Elk. In 1897, newly ordained, the Reverend Edgar Tufts returned as pastor of the church and remained to serve the community until his death in 1923.

In the winter of 1899, concerned with the limited offering of the district school which was supplemented only by summer school work conducted by the church, Mr. Tufts took some of the young people of the neighborhood into his study for further instruction. This small group, called the Class of 1900, marks the beginning of Lees-McRae College.

Mr. Tufts saw, however, that this effort was not enough and that there was a need for a boarding school, especially for the girls of the mountain region. A small amount of money was raised at a prayer meeting and the promise of lumber and labor made possible the opening in 1900 of a frame dormitory for fourteen girls and one teacher. One of the summer school teachers was Elizabeth A. McRae, originally of South Carolina, who had been sent to Banner Elk by Fayetteville Presbytery. Knowing the devoted character of her work, Mr. Tufts, named the institute for her. A few years later, after a boys' department had been opened at Plumtree, he added the name of Mrs. McRae's friend, Mrs. S.P. Lees of Kentucky and New York, who had been a generous benefactor. The schools were chartered by the state in 1907 as the Lees-McRae Institute. In 1927 Lees-McRae became coeducational when the boys unit was moved to Banner Elk after the buildings at Plumtree had been destroyed by fire.

Lees-McRae Institute became Lees-McRae College in 1931, gradually eliminating the high school department to form an accredited, coeducational junior college. In 1987 the Board of Trustees of Lees-McRae College voted to seek senior college status. In June of 1990 the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools granted Lees-McRae status as a senior (four-year) college.

The 1990's were a decade of change as the college expanded course offerings and upgraded facilities. In 1999 Dr. Earl J. Robinson was inaugurated as the twelfth president of Lees-McRae College, marking a "New Era" in the college's history. In September 2000, the college celebrated its centennial. After a hundred years of steady growth, the college enjoys local, state, and national recognition, and looks forward to its second century of excellence.

The book cover features a celestial map, likely a star chart or zodiac wheel, as a background. The map is rendered in a light, golden-brown color against a darker, textured blue background. The title 'Autographs' is written in a large, black, serif font and is underlined. The overall design has a vintage, historical feel.
